

Published on The National Law Review <https://natlawreview.com>

UPDATE: Israel to Join Countries Qualified for E-2 Treaty Investor Visa

Article By:

Thuy-An T. Nguyen

As previously announced on our blog, the E-2 Treaty Investor Visa will soon be available to Israeli nationals wishing to make a substantial investment in or set up a business in the United States. USCIS announced on April 22 that eligible Israeli nationals already in the United States in a lawful nonimmigrant status, as well as their dependents who are also already in the United States, can request a change of status to E-2 classification starting May 1, 2019.

The U.S. Embassy in Israel announced on April 11, 2019, that it will implement the U.S. E-2 Investor Visa for Israeli nationals beginning May 1, 2019.

©2025 Greenberg Traurig, LLP. All rights reserved.

National Law Review, Volume IX, Number 116

Source URL: <https://natlawreview.com/article/update-israel-to-join-countries-qualified-e-2-treaty-investor-visa>