

Published on The National Law Review <https://natlawreview.com>

Louisiana Department of Revenue Issues New Revenue Information Bulletin (RIB 21-025) Addressing Many Frequently Asked Questions Relating to Hurricane Ida Disaster Recovery

Article By:

Matthew A. Mantle

The Louisiana Department of Revenue has now issued Revenue Information Bulletin \(RIB\) 21-025, which addresses many frequently asked questions (FAQs) and provides informational guidance and resources to assist taxpayers located in designated parishes in their recovery efforts following the devastation to many Louisiana individuals and businesses following Hurricane Ida.

The Department's new 10-page FAQs in RIB 21-025 address the following Hurricane Ida disaster recovery-related topics:

- Federal and State Assistance
- Tax Deadline Extensions
- Natural Disaster Sales Tax Refunds
- Donations to Recovery Efforts
- Damages to Residence and Property

The Jones Walker SALT Team will continue to provide additional updates regarding Hurricane Ida relief as they are issued.

© 2025 Jones Walker LLP

National Law Review, Volume XI, Number 256

Source URL: <https://natlawreview.com/article/louisiana-department-revenue-issues-new-revenue-information-bulletin-rib-21-025>