

Published on The National Law Review <https://natlawreview.com>

GTDRIVES: Dynamic Dialogues | Ep 9: A Covid Equity and Inclusion Discussion Part Two [PODCAST]

Article By:

John Voorhees

Troy A. Eid

In this two-part episode, GT attorneys John Voorhees and Troy Eid have a courageous conversation centered on COVID equity and inclusion featuring Dr. Regan Marsh, Senior Technical Lead, COVID-19 Response, U.S. Public Health Accompaniment Unit at Partners In Health, Dr. Sonya Shin, Founding Director of Community Outreach & Patient Empowerment (COPE) Program. They discuss healthcare equity and inclusion, COVID-19, and the economic fault lines impacting access to healthcare that the pandemic has revealed.

©2025 Greenberg Traurig, LLP. All rights reserved.

National Law Review, Volume XII, Number 63

Source URL: <https://natlawreview.com/article/gtdives-dynamic-dialogues-ep-9-covid-equity-and-inclusion-discussion-part-two>