

State Law Privacy Video Series | Appeals Rights

Article By:

Jessica McGahie Sawyer

---

California, Virginia and Colorado have new privacy laws coming into effect in 2023. But now is the time to start preparing your business or organization for compliance.

In this video series, we examine the different aspects of these laws and provide you the knowledge and tools you need for proper compliance.

IN DEPTH

---

In this next video, Counsel Jessi Sawyer discusses the consumers' rights to appeal under the California, Virginia and Colorado privacy laws. She also discusses the different requirements that organizations should be aware of when a consumer's request is denied.

In this next video, Counsel Jessi Sawyer discusses the consumers' rights to appeal under the California, Virginia and Colorado privacy laws. She also discusses the different requirements that organizations should be aware of when a consumer's request is denied.

National Law Review, Volume XII, Number 67

Source URL: <https://natlawreview.com/article/state-law-privacy-video-series-appeals-rights>