

Louisiana Tax Commission Sets Dates for 2023 Rules and Regulations Sessions

Article By:

Jesse (Jay) Adams

For anyone interested in Louisiana property tax issues, the Louisiana Tax Commission has given notice of the dates for its annual Rules and Regulations hearings. Any interested party can submit a proposal to amend the current regulations to the Commission during this process. The Commission accepts written proposals that are presented in an open Commission meeting, followed by rebuttals from any opposing interests. The Commission announces any changes during an adoption hearing. The submission deadlines and hearing dates are set forth in the attached notice.
