Well folks I have been teasing this for long enough. Here it is—our first episode of Deserve to Win.

I think you're going to love it.

We discuss:

- The huge changes to online disclosures imposed by Berman;
- The FTC being back to full strength;
- The FTC's new earth shattering telemarketing record retention rules (is this constitutional?)
- Lead providers being chased for allegedly fraudulent leads in Mantha;
- And recalling the central debate in Plato's Republic, we debate whether being a "good guy" in the call center game makes sense in light of all the bad actors.
