From the Diagnosing Health Care Podcast: How have complaints of information blocking been submitted to the Office of the National Coordinator (ONC), and by whom? What does government enforcement action really look like?

In this episode of our special series on interoperability, hear from ONC attorneys Cassie Weaver and Rachel Nelson.

Cassie, Rachel, and Epstein Becker Green attorneys Allen Killworth and Nivedita Patel discuss how to better understand the formal information-blocking complaint process, trends ONC has observed, and how those complaints could lead to enforcement action.
