Safety by the Numbers: How DOL Data, Stats, and Trends Can Help Employers

Article By:

Kevin D. Bland

Karen Tynan

In this podcast, Kevin Bland and Karen Tynan discuss U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) data and statistics on workplace safety issues and reflect on how statistics and trends can help employers across different industries make business decisions.

Kevin, who is a shareholder in Ogletree's Orange County office, and Karen, the West Coast chair of the firm's Workplace Safety and Health Practice Group, also discuss how employers can use DOL information on everything from inspection records and accident abstract records to records of no violation and strategic code records to make more informed decisions for their safety programs.
