| Published on | The National | Law Review h | nttps://natlawreview.com |
|--------------|--------------|--------------|--------------------------|
|--------------|--------------|--------------|--------------------------|

Current Trends in Legislation – February 2024

| Article By: | |
|---------------|--|
| John Gardella | |
| Amaran Toppa | |
| Tori Paiva | |
| | |

Federal Legislature

Two new bills were introduced that are identical in substance. These bills seek to hold manufacturers who have irresponsibly discharged PFAS accountable by shifting costs of medical monitoring onto responsible parties, among other initiatives.

State Legislature

- Forty two bills were introduced.
- Twelve states introduced bills.
- Common topics the legislature addressed include fire-fighting materials, the implementation of product bans, and water quality standards.

State Regulations

No notable developments in state regulations

©2025 CMBG3 Law, LLC. All rights reserved.

National Law Review, Volume XIV, Number 67

| Source URL: https://natlawreview.com/article/current-trends-legislation-february-2024 | | | | |
|---|--|--|--|--|
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |
| | | | | |