

Published on The National Law Review <https://natlawreview.com>

Corporate Transparency Act Update: Injunction Reinstated

Article By:

Mark M. Christopher

David L. Coombs

Vaishali Goyal

Gary M. Ronan

On December 26, 2024, the merits panel of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit issued an order effectively reinstating the District Court's nationwide injunction of the Corporate Transparency Act.¹

As a result, filers are not obligated to comply with the statute at this time.

For further details, see the Fifth Circuit's order here. We will share additional updates as available.

¹See our previous advisory on the nationwide CTA injunction lifted and filing deadlines extended.

Copyright 2025 Goulston & Storrs PC.

National Law Review, Volume XIV, Number 362

Source URL: <https://natlawreview.com/article/corporate-transparency-act-update-injunction-reinstated>