

Marriage, Divorce, and the EB-5 Process

Article By:

Immigration & Compliance

More often than not, EB-5 investors want to immigrate to the United States with their families, including their spouses and children. Marriage and divorce are important life events that can affect the EB-5 process in different ways at each stage of the process, particularly regarding when the spouse is eligible to derive the benefits as the principal applicant's dependent. Below is an overview of common scenarios and general principles.
