The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has announced the annual revisions to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act (HSR Act) thresholds, which will become effective on February 27, 2017. The revised thresholds will apply to any transaction closing on or after the effective date. The FTC is required to adjust the HSR thresholds annually based upon the change in gross national product.

Under the HSR Act, when a deal satisfies the “size of person” and “size of transaction” thresholds, and no exemption from reporting is available, the deal must be reported to the FTC and the U.S. Department of Justice and the parties must wait for a designated period of time before closing the transaction.

Size of Person. The revised size of person threshold will be met if one party involved in the deal has assets or annual sales totaling $161.5 million or more and one other party involved in the deal has assets or annual sales of at least $16.2 million. Satisfaction of the size of person threshold is not required, however, if the transaction is valued at more than $323 million.

Size of Transaction. The revised size of transaction threshold will be met if the buyer will hold an aggregate amount of stock, non-corporate interests and/or assets of the seller valued at more than $80.8 million as a result of the deal.

The notification thresholds applicable to voting security purchases by minority owners also will increase.

February 1, 2001 Thresholds (Original)	Current Thresholds as of February 25, 2016	New Thresholds Effective February 27, 2017
$50 million	$78.2 million	$80.8 million
$100 million	$156.3 million	$161.5 million
$500 million	$781.5 million	$807.5 million
25% if worth more than $1 billion	25% if worth more than $1.563 billion	25% if worth more than $1.615 billion
50% if worth more than $1 billion	50% if worth more than $78.2 million	50% if worth more than $80.8 million

$50 million		$80.8 million

The adjustments also affect the transaction-size benchmarks that determine the amount of the filing fee to be paid when a filing is required. In addition, the thresholds applicable to many exemptions, including those governing foreign acquisitions, will increase. The $500 million threshold applicable to acquisitions of producing oil and gas reserves and associated assets will not change.

Failure to comply with the notification and waiting period requirements of the HSR Act can result in a civil penalty of up to $40,654 per day for each day a party is in violation. This civil penalty was increased from $16,000 per day per violation to $40,000 per day per violation on August 1, 2016. This amount was further adjusted to $40,654 on January 24, 2017, and will continue to be adjusted annually.
