

Published on The National Law Review <https://natlawreview.com>

More amicus briefs filed in support of All American Check Cashing

Article By:

Barbara S. Mishkin

Three more amicus briefs have been filed in support of All American Check Cashing and the other appellants in their interlocutory appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit of the district court's ruling upholding the CFPB's constitutionality.

The amicus briefs were filed by the following amici:

- Pacific Legal Foundation, which describes itself as “the most experienced public-interest legal organization defending the constitutional principle of separation of powers in the arena of administrative law.”
- The Attorneys General of Texas, Arkansas, Georgia, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, and West Virginia, and the Governor of Maine.
- U.S. Chamber of Commerce

An amicus brief in support of the appellants was previously filed by a group of six “separation of powers scholars.”

Copyright © by Ballard Spahr LLP

National Law Review, Volume VIII, Number 191

Source URL: <https://natlawreview.com/article/more-amicus-briefs-filed-support-all-american-check-cashing>