

House Judiciary Committee to Consider Wayfair Decision Impact

Article By:

Stephen P. Kranz

Eric Carstens

Mark Nebergall

The US House Committee on the Judiciary has scheduled a hearing for Tuesday, July 24 at 10:00 am EDT in 2141 Rayburn House Office Building. According to a press release circulated last night, the topic of the hearing will be “[e]xamining the Wayfair decision and its ramifications for consumers and small businesses.” According to comments made by House Judiciary Chairman Bob Goodlatte (R-VA) to Bloomberg Law, specific pending or former legislation will not be considered and instead the hearing will be informational and used to drive the committee’s next steps, if any.

The 8 witnesses that will be testifying at the hearing next week are listed below.

1. Grover Norquist, Americans for Tax Reform President
2. Chad White, Class-Tech-Cars, Inc. Owner
3. Lary Sinewitz, BrandsMart Executive Vice President, on behalf of the National Retail Federation
4. Bartlett Cleland, American Legislative Exchange Council General Counsel and Chief Strategy and Innovation Officer
5. The Honorable Curt Bramble, National Conference of State Legislatures Past President
6. Andrew Moylan, National Taxpayers Union Foundation Executive Vice President
7. Joseph Crosby, MultiState Associates Incorporated Principal
8. Andrew Pincus, Mayer Brown Partner

A live video feed of the hearing will be available here next Tuesday. The authors plan to attend the hearing in-person and will post a follow-up blog summarizing our thoughts shortly after the hearing concludes next Tuesday. Stay tuned!

© 2025 McDermott Will & Emery

National Law Review, Volume VIII, Number 201

Source URL: <https://natlawreview.com/article/house-judiciary-committee-to-consider-wayfair-decision-impact>